

Boston Progress Radio

MUSIC CLEARANCE FORM

Thank you for your interest in Boston Progress Radio (BPR). BPR's primary mission is to provide independent Asian American musicians and spoken word artists with a medium for exposing their music to a larger audience. In order to legally broadcast your music, we must obtain permission from all copyright holders or have a representative sign on behalf of all copyright holders. BPR will keep your recording on file and only use your recording for non-commercial purposes. Please mail the completed form to the address listed below and if possible, include a CD with this agreement. In lieu of a CD, tell us where we can obtain your music.

AGREEMENT

In order to play your music, we need permission from a) the copyright holder(s) of the musical composition and lyrics and b) the copyright holder(s) of the specific sound recording. For many independent artists, the copyright holder(s) for both the musical composition and the sound recording will be the same entity.

I/We the undersigned, hereby known as the Artist(s), grant to the owners, operators, and producers of Boston Progress Radio (BPR):

- a) A non-exclusive, royalty-free license to perform an unlimited number of public Internet transmissions of the specific song(s) or piece(s) of music, listed on the attached Music Description Form(s), in its/their entirety,
- b) A non-exclusive, royalty-free license to make up to five (5) copies of the specific sound recordings listed on the attached Music Description Form(s) for purposes of Internet transmission only.

All permission and licenses granted in this agreement pertain to non-commercial use only.

By signing this form, I/we certify that I/we hold the applicable copyrights and are able to lawfully enter into this agreement. In the case that I/we hold a portion of the copyright(s) as owners of an independent publishing or record company, my/our signature will serve to grant the rights as listed above for that entity. This Agreement may be terminated at any time by submitting a written request from any of the parties listed below.

Optional Clause:

By checking the following box, my/our signature(s) will serve to grant the rights as listed above for all copyright holder(s).
